Amigurumi: 4 Crochet Patterns To Make Pocket Sized Toys

Synopsis

Amigurumi are little stuffed dolls made by crochet or knitting. These little stuffed dolls are small enough to keep in a pocket or purse, they make good gifts or items to sell at bazaars and craft shows. They work up very quickly using a size F hook and worsted weight yarn. It does not include crochet instructions or charts. The patterns are written using American terminology. Patterns include: A Little Bat, Kitty Elephant, Pumpkin. They use simple stitches and are in joined rounds instead of worked in a spiral. The most advanced technique you'll need to do to make these little toys is a decrease stitch, and instructions for that are given. This e-booklet has 4 patterns total. 3 of them have been previously published for free on my website. The 4th has always been a for sale pattern, and this book is the same price that I sell the pattern for on Ravelry.
