Customer Reviews

My 9yr old bought my husband a Ukulele for Father's Day (well I helped finance it). This was her music book of choice for him (doesn't everyone love Taylor?). She is overjoyed that her Dad can play Taylor Swift and they have had many a dance party thanks to this book. Our only complaint is that it's all "older" songs, however that is the nature of printed material so it's not a big drawback.

Purchased this for my 9 year old daughter. She is learning to play the ukulele and loves Taylor Swift. Some of the chords are difficult for her level of experience, but because she knows and likes the songs it motivates her to learn and practice.

My daughter loves this book. She is already playing the songs. Thank you Taylor Swift

This is a beautifully presented album, a rather unusual find. I bought it as a Xmas present for my 8-year old granddaughter who loves Taylor Swift. HOWEVER! The songs are just way too low for her to sing. They are even too low for MOI & I'm a church alto. I think I'm going to have to transpose these eventually...but that's kinda a put off, huh?

Does not indicate strum patterns so you get a little lost with the chord transitions. Wish it came with a CD to hear as a guide.

Purchased for a gift. Looks great. arrived on time! Thanks!

Edit: The sheet music is acts like an image on a kindle, so you have to tap it and click the magnifying glass. It's still a bit clunky on kindle, but I've changed from 2 to 4 stars because I can read it now. This is for the kindle version. You cannot zoom in on the sheet music; you can only zoom in on the "additional lyrics" pages. This seems like a huge oversight. I can barely read a thing. I would have rated it one star, but the music is great and the chords seem to be correct.

Review said it would work for a baritone ukulele and it does not
