One of the most popular boys' love mangaka to come out of Japan, Ayano Yamane is the creator of A Foreign Love Affair and the Crimson Spell series. She has also published doujinshi (independent comics) under the circle name GUN MANIA. A native of Awazi Island, she was born a Sagittarius on December 18th and has an A blood type. OMG I cannot get enough of this Manga. I can wait until I receive volume 2.

I love it i had been waiting a whole year for it to come out

I've been waiting for ages and I love everything about it - except for the extra. Oh, don't get me wrong, it's my favorite bonus chapter, but people who have not read the Finder series before, will wonder who the long-haired guy is and why Akihito exhibits such a strong reaction towards him. NEW READERS BEWARE: This extra should not, I repeat; NOT be read until you have finished the Hong Kong arc which concludes in vol. 6! This is a massive spoiler. Hey, editors: That was some seriously sloppy decision making on your part! Shame on you!

Love it.

With Finder Deluxe Edition, you get a couple of chapters of the main story and then some side stories. The common theme is nonconsensual sex - and that's pretty much it. The artwork is serviceable, if a bit dated, but the clear purpose is not to present a story so much as titillate. Honestly, I found it a bit boring and a bit too graphic - and when they say painful, the reality would be that no one would be sitting easily for a week but here the characters just shrug it off like a bad dream. Those who have read the similarly graphic author's other work, Crimson Spell, will likely know what to expect here, just with a contemporary and fairly unrealistic premise. I felt her style worked much better in a fantasy setting, though. Reviewed from an advance reader copy provided by the publisher
