Customer Reviews

I believe that if it wasn't for this book, we'd have missed some of the best seafood on the Outer Banks this past summer. Fisherman's Wharf, in Wanchese on Roanoke Island, has one of the best selections of fresh seafood on the northern Outer Banks. Along with the restaurant at the Driftwood Motel on Cedar Island. The two and a half hour ferry ride is well worth it. Stay the night in one of the Driftwood's comfortable rooms and ferry back across in the morning. Great sightseeing guide.

I've lived on the Outer Banks for only 5 years, and this book had nothing in it that I didn't already know about. Also, most of the "secrets" included in this book are restaurants and businesses. Unless you're looking to read advertising disguised as a book, avoid this one.
