Christine Zuchora-Walske studied literature, communications, and publishing at the University of Notre Dame and the University of Denver. She has been writing books and magazine articles for 20 years. In addition to animal titles, she has written books on history and current events. Her books have made appearances on the IRA Teachers' Choice list and the NSTA/CBC Outstanding Science Trade Books for Students list.

I am not sure why they called this book The D.R. in Pictures. It has very few and they are not good. Being Dominican, I know how the DR looks, which is poorly represented in this book. I bought this book to give to a business associate, but was disappointed that I could not show the beautiful island that the Dominican Republic really is. I liked the descriptions and background provided. Therefore, I believe this should be described as a history book. Also, this book is overpriced. For being a book of pictures it is too small.
