What a helpful map! It folds out and folds up easier than you can almost imagine! It is a very helpful map that you can quickly refer to and is not at all cumbersome like standard maps you find. The only issues we encountered when navigating Dublin with this map were: 1) that some of the names on this map were not the same names we saw on signs and 2) that a good number of actual streets were not labeled in Dublin.

This is a great map of Dublin, and it fits right in your pocket. I wish we'd had this when we were in Dublin last fall. We'll make good use of it the next time we go. If you've never driven in Dublin, you won't know that the street names change nearly every block. You can go in circles trying to locate your destination. I highly recommend this map.

These maps are great. They fit so easily in your pocket and are just the right size. I try to get them for any major city I am visiting. The Dublin one was quite handy as we were staying right by Temple Bar. We used this frequently on our trip.

Going over again in April and this is by far the most compact, carry-able, and useful map I have ever purchased on all my dozen trips to Ireland. It's already earmarked for our upcoming trip.

Print too small for my eyes. Would not be useful while walking around if you are not somewhat familiar with the city.
