Customer Reviews

Book was a bit short and shallow. Subplot of battered wife never really developed. Main characters can't communicate. Did not leave my yearning for more

A well written and engaging story. But I am frustrated that I have no additional stories to read regarding Elsie and Becca. You just left me hanging!! Brenda's stories are always great.

This book was very well written with a little suspense. It kept your interest that you were unable to put the book down.

Elsie is sent to help her Mammi in the community where she grew up. Besides meeting her childhood crush, she finds and hides Englisher woman who has been severely beaten by her abusive husband

I enjoyed this story very much but felt let down that it ended so abruptly. I feel like there is so much more to tell about Elsie, Matthew, James and especially what happens to Becca. So I've ended up disappointed.
