Customer Reviews

If you are a pastor and deal at all with death and dying (is there any other kind of pastor?), get this book. Not only is it superb, it is easy to carry around. The perspective is Reformed, but the book draws from a variety of resources. From visits with those approaching death to the funeral service and family care after, this book is a fantastic resource.

A trusty companion for walking alongside others in crisis. I've used my copy every time I pastor a family through hospice and beyond.
