Customer Reviews

It's straight forward, easy to follow, and organized/categorized logically. However, most attorneys/law schools use Blue Book, which is formatted differently. Not worth buying. Probably could just google how to cite using ALWD or borrow from a your school library and save yourself the money. Blue Book is the standard. This is the MLA of the legal world: it's okay, but it's substandard to other citations.

good condition

I like this over the Blue Book. Way easier to follow and better examples.

not sure if this is the best book in the world but i needed it for school

This is req'd reading for a legal research class. The ALWD Guide is supposed to be comparable to and easier to understand than the Blue book. So far it works for me.

Definitely better than The Blue Book of Citation!

Purchased for classroom utilization; product arrived in great condition.

ALWD is infinitely better than the Bluebook. It's easier to read, explains the rules better, and gives clearer examples.
