Each Fodor's Travel Guide is researched and written by resident experts

We purchased this book in advance of our trip to Toronto and the Niagara Falls region. Do not be fooled by the title which purports to include information on Niagara Falls and the Niagara Wine Region. This book seriously lacks as a guide for the region. Unfortunately we did not realize this fact until we were actually on vacation. If you do happen to buy the book, take caution at some of their recommendations - particularly "Fodor's Choice" to dine at the restaurant at Vineland Estates. While the wine was actually quite tasty and the view was beautiful, the food was very disappointing (especially for the price). We had such a good experience with Fodor's book on Vancouver and we were anticipating the same great restaurant recommendations with Fodor's Toronto guide. I pass on my experience so that you won't suffer the same disappointment.

This guide is a must have for anyone travelling to Toronto or the falls. I highly recommend it without reservation.
