Customer Reviews

I first bought into this series because I love Jayne Rylon. This is the second book in the series. Things just are not going well for Christina. She was so excited to move to NY city, until the unthinkable happens. She loses her job, her apartment, and gets picked up for prostitution. Now she has to call the only person in her life that cared about her. She has not seen Kent in years, but he always treated her so good. Better than her own parents. Kent went to pick her up and one look and all bets are off. He is much older and she is a virgin. Great story and the sex is hot. Not to mention Avi, the ever helpful penthouse neighbor wants to see them together no matter the age difference.

Short, sexy, steamy...Kinky is a delicious little taboo tale about a young woman, an older family friend, and the wicked turn their relationship takes when she contacts him one night out of the blue. It's a fantasy story, and a great addition to the Penthouse series. I love getting to read more about each of the tenants, though they're all standalone stories. Definitely a book, a series, to read if you want a satisfying erotic escape!

This story is all kinds of dirty and I loved every word. These authors know how to write dirty, sexy and sweet all rolled into one. In the final chapters, we're given a pretty steamy MFM moment that was off the charts. While there could have been more to the story I think the authors did a great job with this kinky Daddy/ good girl book

While this was a decently written book, I did not enjoy it. There was no real plot, other than two older men having relations with a woman young enough to be their daughter. I'm not a prude and have no problem with these types of books, but there needs to at least be some semblance of a plot.

Holy extra hawtness, this book, from the start to the end, is just filled with sexiness that will have you undulating around. I mean, there are smexy times, and then there are smexy times and this is scorching. That being said, there were also some deep emotions attached to all of these antics. Both inside and outside the bedroom, the feelings are there and some deeper items dealt with. If you are looking for your next one-handed read, look no further!

Loved this second story from the three Masters of erotic romance! Note, as it says in the description, this story may be a little taboo for some. But everything about it is just so hot I got completely sucked in right away, and was right there for every moment of the journey with the characters. Excellent HOT read, highly recommended!!

Loved, loved, loved this book. An older man, younger woman story - particularly when she is innocent - is always so satisfying to read and this one was so sexy and earthy and lusty and loving and, and, and So, totally deliciously hot. I am so looking forward to the others in this series. Bring on the next four months!

If you like daddy and baby girl role play, then you will love this book. Want a quick hot read? You have found it. Make sure you read it when you are alone or have your lover near by. I can't wait to see what these wonderful ladies come up with next.
