Synopsis

Babies love baby animals, and now they can learn all about them in a book that's indestructible. This charmingly illustrated menagerie includes some of the fuzziest, wuzziest, cuddliest, and cutest babies in the animal kingdom. With over two million copies in print, Indestructibles are the books built for the way babies read. They are 100 percent baby-proof, chew-proof, rip-proof, and drool-proof. Printed on a unique nontoxic, paperlike material that holds up to anything babies can throw at it—gumming, spilling, dragging across the floor—Indestructibles are the little books that could. They're indestructible. And if they get dirty, just throw them in the dishwasher.

Stephan Lomp has been writing and illustrating books with publishers in Germany, the UK, France, Spain, and the United States since 1996. He lives with his family in Düsseldorf, Germany. Amy Pixton, a mother of triplets, created Indestructibles after bits of traditional board books found their way into her babies' mouths. Amy lives in Kansas City with her husband and their three children.

I got these for my newborn grandson in December when he was born. I knew he wouldn't use them for a while but they looked so great. The pages are made out of a paper that cannot rip, shredded or ruined. My daughter says he loves them already. He is following along with the story he tries to turn the pages. When he is on the floor crawling around he beelines to his toy basket and gets one of the books. My daughter said she can wash it in the sink dry with paper towels and then when wet straighten the out and they look practically brand new. We love these books.

This book has been repeatedly chewed on, pulled, tugged, and thrown by my son. The pages look like they've been through hell (they're extremely wrinkled), but it's still completely in one piece. Absolutely no tears or rips at all. It's reassuring to know that if he starts chewing on it, the ink won't come off the pages and he can gum and gnaw away to his little heart's desire. Highly, highly recommend these and plus they're light enough to throw in your purse/diaper bag when you're on the go.

I love these books!!! I bought them for my in-home daycare and the children chew on them TRY and tear them and are really rough with them. I have washed in the washing machine and dried in the dryer. I highly recommend!!

Great book for babies, our baby loves to crush, eat and crinkle all the pages and we can read it again the next day. I love that they are washable and can pack into any bag for entertainment out.

My baby loves this book, but it is not dishwasher safe. As it touts 100% washable, stuck it in the dishwasher and all the colors are now bleached out. Hopefully baby won't notice.

These really are indestructible. My girl has given this book a run for it's money. The only reason I give it 4 stars is because it is a wrinkled mess at this point..... but still all in one piece.

This is our favorite indestructible book. My little one loves that she can "read" these books all by herself and this particular book has very cute illustrations.

great book for my newly born kid. animals is what she loves! I have read this book about 200 times it feels like.
