Nomadic Matt's Guide To Stockholm (2016 Edition)

Synopsis

Nomadic Matt is the largest independent travel website in the world. Stockholm is one of the most beautiful and wonderful cities in Europe. This guide is your ticket to getting off the beaten path and having an authentic, non-touristy visit. Written by New York Times best selling author and former resident of Stockholm Matthew Kepnes, this book features insider tips and cuts out on all the junk, getting right to the point so you can spend less time planning and more time exploring. What's included in the guide? Suggested itineraries for various lengths of time. Suggested (and realistic) budgets. Ways to save money in Stockholm (which is important in such an expensive city!!!). Transportation maps. What to see and do (and what to skip). Insider tips on the best local places eat, drink, and play. Budget accommodation. Cultural insights on the city's history, politics, and arts, including a list of suggested books and movies. Practical tips on getting around, business hours, visas, weather, emergency contacts, and much, much more. This guide contains all the essential information you need to explore Stockholm! If you're the type of traveler who likes to get away from the crowds, save money, and meet locals, this comprehensive guide is for you!
